

The 2011-2012 First Peoples Studies Public Lectures Series

Wednesday, September 28, 2011

"Water, Forests, Land": The Struggles of Indigenous People in India and the Vanishing Imagination of the Law

Speaker: Dr. Radha D'Souza, University of Westminster, UK

Venue: School of Community and Public Affairs, Annex CI, room 103

Time: 5:30 pm

Tuesday, October 11, 2011

Le Plan Nord: une nouvelle version de la malédiction des ressources naturelles (lecture will be in French)

Speaker: Dr. Hugo Asselin, Université du Québec en Abitibi-Témiscamingue

Venue: School of Community and Public Affairs, Annex CI, room 103

Time: 6:00 pm

Thursday, October 20, 2011

Transforming the Relationship between Indigenous Peoples and Settler Societies: Constitutional Reform, Political Reconciliation and Decolonization in Canada and Australia

Speaker: Dr. Kiera Ladner, University of Manitoba

Venue: School of Community and Public Affairs, Annex CI, room 103

Time: 5:30 pm

Thursday, January 26, 2012

"N'ginaajiwimi: A Decolonizing Perspective on the Impacts of HIV and AIDS on Aboriginal People" (this lecture is offered in collaboration with the Concordia University Community Lecture Series on HIV/AIDS)

Speaker: Doris Peltier, Wikwemikong Unceded First Nation, Ontario

Venue: H-110, 1455 de Maisonneuve Blvd. West

Time: 6:00 pm

Monday, February 6, 2012

The Assassination of Hole in the Day: Ojibwe Life, Leadership and Land Transformed

Speaker: Dr. Anton Treuer, Bemidji State University, Minnesota

Venue: TBA

Time: TBA

Tuesday, March 13, 2012

Dibenindizowin Freedom and Indigenous Peoples

Speaker: Dr. John Borrows, University of Victoria

Venue: TBA

Time: TBA

The First Peoples Studies Public Lectures Series is offered thanks to the support of DIALOG – Aboriginal People Research and Knowledge Network, the Office of the Vice President, Research and Graduate Studies, the Office of the Dean of Arts and Science and an anonymous donor. For further information, please call 514.848.2424, ext. 2575.